

University of Cyprus
Medical School

ANNOUNCEMENT OF NINE (9) ACADEMIC POSITIONS

The University of Cyprus was established in 1989 and admitted its first students in 1992. The Medical School was established in 2012 and accepted the first students in September 2013. Patient care, research, and teaching are the foundational pillars of the Medical School aiming to promote research, innovation, and developments for the benefit of public health.

The University of Cyprus announces nine (9) academic positions, with submission deadline the 18th of March 2016.

- Four (4) positions at the rank of full Professor in General Surgery, Internal Medicine, Pediatrics, Gynecology/Obstetrics.
- Five (5) positions at the rank of Assistant Professor or Lecturer in General Surgery, Internal Medicine, Oncology/Hematology, Histopathology, Epidemiology/Public Health.

Information regarding the above positions can be accessed at the University of Cyprus Webpage <http://www.ucy.ac.cy/hr/en/academic-staff> and more details at the following link: <http://www.ucy.ac.cy/medical/en/general-information/vacancies>

---